

ANIMAL WARDEN-PARKING ENFORCEMENT OFFICER

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS: Under the general supervision of the Police Chief or other high-level Police Department personnel, an incumbent of this class performs a dual function as the Animal Warden and Parking Enforcement Officer. As Animal Warden, the incumbent in this class is responsible for patrolling, picking up and transporting animals to an Animal Shelter, including impounding and disposing of stray and/or unlicensed animals. These duties involve the exercise of judgment in the capture and handling of animals and diplomacy in dealing with the general public. Patience and kindness to animals are requisites of this position. As Parking Enforcement Officer, the incumbent in this class is responsible for patrolling in an assigned area or route, checking parking meters and restricted parking areas for standing traffic violations and issuing summonses for same. The incumbent may be required to wear a prescribed uniform type of clothing (not a police uniform), but does not perform general police duties. Does related work as required.
